

CALL FOR RESEARCH

ILMEA seeks to promote and celebrate research through the inclusion of a regularly-occurring research feature in the journal.

To that end, ILMEA is seeking scholarly research articles on music teaching and learning to be published in the Illinois Music Educator Journal. This announcement serves as a broad call for submissions that address research in music education.

Action research and graduate student project submissions are welcomed, as are articles on research methods and research pedagogy in the field of music education. Submissions will be peer-reviewed.

Submission Guidelines & Procedures:

1. Submit to mte@ilmea.org.
2. Submission of an article implies that it has not been previously published and has not been submitted for publication elsewhere.
3. The article should not exceed 2,500 words.
4. Include a biography of no more than 100 words including author's name, affiliation, and contact information.
5. Use the style manual appropriate for the genre.
6. Adhere to the code of ethics found here:
